WINE SPEAKER

Tony Apostolakos, US Director, MASI

Tony Apostolakos comes from a family with a wine making background, as they originally owned vineyards in Central Greece dating back to the early 1900s before emigration to Montreal in Canada. Tony first represented Masi in Canada in 1999 before he switched his attention to the United States market in 2005. He has now been appointed Director of Marketing and Sales in USA for Masi and makes regular trips to company headquarters in Valpolicella, to spend time with the Boscaini family and the Masi Technical Group and ensure he is fully up-to-date with the company's wine making techniques and global strategy. When not traveling inside USA for Masi, Tony resides in the Finger Lakes region of New York.
